

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT UPDATE

September 2021

Highlights

The Disabled American Veterans dedicated their new national headquarters building in Erlanger and celebrated the centennial of the organization this week. Mayor Fette spoke at the celebration on Monday, September 27th alongside DAV's National Commander, Andrew Marshall. The building is open to the public to provide veterans services, a museum and the DAV store. Erlanger is happy to welcome DAV to the community!

Aesthetics by Jeanne received a small business grant to make improvements including signage, lighting and interior fixtures to their location at 18 Commonwealth Avenue. Well done!

Emi Randall continued the Kentucky Institute for Economic Development training this month, with sessions on real estate development, marketing & attraction, innovation, business retention and workforce development.

Business correspondences were conducted with the following:

- Signature Hardware
- Aesthetics by Jeanne
- Vanguard Logistics
- Girl Scouts of Kentucky Wilderness
- Blankenship Massey & Associates
- DeVault Financial Services
- W. Ron Adams Law
- Erlanger/Elsmere School

DeVault
Financial Services

girl scouts of kentucky's
wilderness road

SIGNATURE
HARDWARE

aesthetics
BY JEANNE

VANGUARD
LOGISTICS