Happy Retirement

Deputy Chief Rhonda Wolfe

Deputy Chief Wolfe started as a volunteer with Erlanger Fire/EMS in March of 1995. She was later hired Full-Time in 2004. She spent years on shift before being promoted to the EMS Coordinator's position. That position was later transformed into the Deputy Chief of EMS. She has served on numerous regional committees and is responsible for many innovations that have benefited the community we serve.

Best of luck!

Happy Retirement

Firefighter/EMT Tom Herman

Tom started with Erlanger Fire/EMS in May of 2020 as a Firefighter/EMT. He is married, and prior to coming to Erlanger, Tom worked as a Full- Time Fire Lieutenant with the Elsmere Fire Department. His experience helped bridge the gap with newer members we hired. Tom will be moving to Florida. Best of luck!

Training For the Month

Relay Pumping

September 12 - 14

Crews practiced the techniques involved with using one fire truck to supply water to another fire truck. This is useful when a hydrant is not close or we are fighting fire on the interstate.

Training For the Month

EMS Simulator

September 2022

Crews visited the St Elizabeth EMS simulation lab (Mineola Pike). There, they were given various medical scenarios to work through using advanced manikins.
