

Programs / News:

- Officer Clay Centers graduated from the DOCJT Police Basic Academy. He was recognized for his military service, Firearms Proficiency, Leadership, and Physical Fitness.
- Officer Page began his academy training on December 27th.
- Officer Plunkett was home from the academy during the Christmas break working on field training.
- Officers participated in the annual Cops and Kids shopping event.
- Planning, applications, interviews, and selections for the 2024 high school interns have begun. The opportunity was opened up to 4 schools. Two schools submitted candidates. We will host interns from Lloyd and Beechwood during the spring.

Training:

- Detectives attended Shooting Scene Reconstruction training
- Training Officer Eagler and PSW Moore have been attending trainings and coordinating a peer support / Officer wellness program.
- Firearms qualifications began for the new firearms.
- Taser recertification is being conducted

Investigations/Case Highlights:

- Detectives worked with Department of Homeland security on a search warrant.
- NKY Drug Strikeforce worked with patrol on a drug / firearm arrest and search warrant.