

Programs / News:

- Officer Plunkett graduated the Police Academy and is finishing his Field Training.
- Erlanger participated in the DEA Drug Takeback event for prescription drugs on the 27th
- Officers participated in a “Community Night” hosted by White Castle. White Castle will be making a donation of 15% of their sales from the event to the E-Angel program.
- Candidate testing for a potential new officer was conducted this month. Several candidates were interviewed for consideration.
- The internship program is expanding. An interview and selection were made for a college intern from Thomas More. The college intern will spend time with the police department over the summer.
- Interest from the surrounding high schools have already been presented with upcoming seniors for January of 2025. St. Henry High School as reached out to begin participating.

Training:

- Detective Holmstrom is completing the first half of an intensive 400-hour Criminalistic Academy
- The Drone team conducted daytime and night time training this month
- Officer Eagler attended a Post Critical Incident training for Executives to further efforts in Peer Support.
- Several critical policies were reviewed and updated

Investigations/Case Highlights:

- The drone team responded for 3 call outs this month, assisted the SWAT and Reconstruction Teams, and additionally were able to assist in taking aerial photos of the new Public Works and Cahill Commons.

- Erlanger officers and detectives have been working collaboratively with several jurisdictions in regards to thefts of vehicles on the rise around the area. Some suspects have been identified.