

Programs / News:

- The Police Department held a community event this month to celebrate the 75th Anniversary
- Officer Semler was honored this month with the 2024 Occupant Protection Award at the Governor’s Award Banquet in Lexington
- Our SROs, K9s, and PSW participated in the Erlanger Elsmere School Block Party
- Erlanger was selected as one of the 1st agencies in the state to participate in the Police Phlebotomy program, allowing officers to be certified to draw blood for DUI arrests.
- Our college intern completed his internship hours this month. He completed 91.5 hours over the summer and plans to participate in F.A.T.S. training in January. He has expressed interest in applying to the police department with Erlanger. Several additional intern applicants have reached out to inquire about our opportunities

Training:

- Training continues with our police recruits. Ofc. Smith has begun in person training at DOCJT, Ofc. Taylor has begun DOCJT online training, and Officer Monson continues field training in preparation for her academy date.
- Officer Megan Ryle graduated the Police Phlebotomy program course in Lexington as Valedictorian of her class. She additionally passed her state and national certification courses.

Investigations/Case Highlights:

- Officers worked on several stolen/ recovered vehicles this month
- Officers responded to several ongoing disputes and juvenile issues this month